

HAVE BEGUN TO FIRE ON COLON

Com. McCrea Stopped the Bombardment Until Foreigners Left.

LAND U. S. MARINES

Effort of Colombian Government to Oust Liberals Out of the Capital City.

ATTACK ON PANAMA

Colon, Nov. 25.—The government gunboat Penson, whose commander has given notice that he will bombard the city has taken up a position at the north end of the city. Everyone is panic stricken and the foreigners have taken refuge on the warships in the harbor. Fighting is reported in progress near the city between the government troops and the liberals.

It is reported that an attack on Panama is in progress.

Defeat of the Liberals.
Washington, Nov. 25.—The Colombian charge d'affaires here today received a cablegram from the acting governor at Panama announcing the defeat of the liberals at Calobra and Emperador. The cablegram adds that the governor marched on Colon last night and that traffic on the railroads will be re-established today.

McCrea Forbids Bombardment.
Washington, Nov. 25.—Commander McCrea commanding the United States gunboat at Colon has forbidden the bombardment of Colon by the government vessel until all the foreigners had an opportunity to escape from the city.

Consul General Gudgeon at Panama has replied to the state department that all railroad traffic is seriously interrupted. This it is expected will result in the landing of the marines from the United States battleship Iowa. The commander of the Iowa sent the following dispatch to the navy department this morning:

"Gen. Alban with six hundred fighting liberals is in line near Empire. Transit is in danger of interruption. With a detachment of men I have gone to make transit clear and to keep it so."

To Fire on City of Colon

Colon, Colombia, Nov. 25.—The arrival of the Colombian gunboat General Pinzon in the harbor here with 600 government troops on board caused great excitement, but this was intensified when it became known that the commander of the gunboat had announced his purpose to bombard the city at noon. Residents are making hurried preparations to take refuge on the American, British and French warships in the harbor, having been assured of such protection through the various consuls. Upon the arrival of the Pinzon the scenes in the streets of Colon bordered on panic, the residents being fully convinced the Colombian gunboat would at once begin an indiscriminate assault upon the city. Vigorous protests were made to representatives of foreign governments here against such action on the ground that many innocent persons and noncombatants would be killed by the shells.

Warned by American Commander.

Commander McCrea of the United States gunboat Maebias sent a note to Commander Ignacio Follaco of the Pinzon, reminding him of the impropriety of firing upon the city without due announcement and as a result the Colombian sent formal notice to Commander McCrea and the commanders of the British and French warships now in the harbor that he intended to bombard Colon at noon Monday, thus giving twenty-four hours' notice. Commander McCrea awaits instructions from Washington regarding the threat to bombard. The liberals, who have held the city since they captured it

Tuesday, have been on the alert all day, intending to make every effort to prevent the landing of troops from the Pinzon, but it appears quite improbable that their small force will be able to hold out against the government troops.

May Land Colombian Troops.
It is believed here that before the guns of the Pinzon begin the bombardment the 600 soldiers will be landed on the beach south of the city and be prepared to attack the insurgents from the rear. The liberals claim to have at least 700 men in possession of the different railroad stations on the line between here and Panama. These men would doubtless do their utmost to prevent the transportation of government troops to this point.

BELOIT PEOPLE ARE BLUE

The Overwhelming Defeat at Ann Arbor Camps College Ardu.
Beloit, Wis., Nov. 25.—The result of the game with Michigan was a shock to Beloit people, both in and out of the college, and there is no one who thought such a result possible at this time. Excuses are only based on supposition.

The members of the team appeared in good trim when they left town, and Coach Hollister expected that they would cover themselves with glory. It is presumed that the loss of Slater and Cronk weakened the team and the long trip to reach Ann Arbor had something to do with the result. No one feels like talking much on the subject.

London, Nov. 25.—Prince Kropotkin, the exiled Russian Savant and Socialist, who was recently arrested in America, is seriously ill here.

SUB-MARINE BOAT PROVES A SUCCESS

All Aboard Were Alive and Well After Submersion of 15 Hours—Test Was Satisfactory.

New York, Nov. 25.—The Holland submarine torpedo boat Fulton came to the surface yesterday morning at 10:30, after fifteen hours' submersion. All on board were alive and well and as fresh as if they had been sealed up in the boat but a few minutes, instead of many hours. The test took place at the company's training plant, at New Suffolk, while the fiercest gale and rainstorm that had visited the section in twenty-three years was blowing.

FLEETWOOD, MICH., HAS BEEN ISOLATED

Inhabitants of the Little Hamlet Are in a State of Terror, in Fear of Small Pox.

Fleetwood, Mich., Nov. 25.—Trains on the Milwaukee road do not stop here and the station is tightly locked up. A rigid quarantine is declared on the town, due to the fact that Station Agent Rothman of the road mentioned suddenly developed small pox today.

News of the fact was at once communicated to the state health officers, the officials of the Milwaukee road, and the action as stated followed upon the receipt of telegraphic instructions.

Fleetwood is as isolated today as though it were far removed into the desert of Sahara. Not only that, but the seventy-five inhabitants of the hamlet are in a state of terror, fearing that the one case has so thoroughly exposed the residents that an epidemic of the disease is imminent. It was with the utmost difficulty that news of the quarantine and the exact state of affairs was sent out after the filing of the telegrams to the state and railroad officials.

STEAMER AND 200 MEN MAY BE LOST; VESSEL FROM SOBIG BAY TO MANILA

Many Passengers Are Missing—Strong Rebel Fort on Bohol Island Taken by American Troops.

Manila, Nov. 25.—The local steamer Alerta, with 200 passengers, including some discharged American soldiers from Olongapo, Subig Bay, to Manila, is believed to have been lost.

Take Fort on Presciple

Manila, Nov. 25.—Captain Edward P. Lawton's company of the Nineteenth Infantry has attacked and captured an insurgent fort on Bohol Island, south of Cebu, in the Visayan group. This fort was surrounded by a precipice and the only entrance to the higher ground was guarded by a stockade with a line of intrenchments behind it. Captain Lawton sent Sergeant McMahon and twenty men to climb the precipice and attack the fort in the rear. Sergeant McMahon's party accomplished their task after three hours' climbing through the thick growth of underbrush and vines that covered the steep ascent. They took

EIGHT LIVES KNOWN TO BE LOST; GREAT GALE ON ATLANTIC COAST

Ships and Buildings Torn to Pieces—Thirty Men Were Rescued Amid Great Peril—Piers and Harbors Entirely Smashed and Washed Away.

New York, Nov. 25.—Eight lives are known to be lost as a result of a hurricane of Saturday and Sunday along the New Jersey and Long Island coasts. Five members of two barge crews were drowned near Bornegate. The barges were a total loss.

A wrecked German ship lies high and dry and the tug Monmouth has strong hopes of saving the ship. One man who aided in the rescue of the crew of the tug Robert Haddon was drowned by the collapse of a pier on which he stood. Jas. Barly and Wm. Rae were drowned while attempting to rescue their boats.

Boston, Nov. 25.—The worst gale of the season is sweeping over the New England coast. All craft in Boston harbor are warned not to proceed outside. Considerable alarm is felt for the numerous shipping vessels.

New York, Nov. 25.—A terrific

ICE COMPANIES TO IGNORE THE STATE

Interesting Fight is On Between Wisconsin and the Shippers of Ice Out of the State.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 25.—Signals are flying for an interesting fight between the ice companies and the state. The last legislature passed a law taxing the ice companies 10 cents for each ton of ice shipped out of the state. The companies made a hard fight against the bill, but were unable to prevent its passage.

The bill provides that all companies or individuals intending to cut ice for shipment out of the state must apply for a license from the secretary of state prior to Sept. 1. This provision has been ignored. None of the companies has made such application, and though the secretary of state would be accommodating enough to back date the licenses provided they were asked for, the companies show no desire to take advantage of this opportunity.

The heaviest shippers are the Armour and Knickerbocker companies, which ship out thousands of tons of ice each season. It is learned that the companies will proceed with their cutting this winter as usual and let the state initiate proceedings. Then the law will be taken into the courts on the ground that it is unconstitutional.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES

London, Nov. 25.—Dick Berge, the famous pugilist, has been arrested for complicity in the Liverpool Bank forgeries in which one hundred and seventy thousand pounds are said to have been taken by the book-keeper.

Milan, Nov. 25.—The trial of the Anarchist Granotti, of Paterson, N. J., accused of being an accomplice of Bresci, the assassin of Humbert began today.

Pittsburg, Nov. 25.—Four daughters of J. G. Miller, of Knoxville were burned to death in a fire which destroyed their residence at an early hour this morning.

OKLAHOMA MAY GAIN STATEHOOD

New Mexico and Arizona, Unlikely to Be Admitted Any Time in the Near Future.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 25.—There is a strong sentiment manifested among arriving congressmen favorable to the admission of Oklahoma into the union, but decidedly adverse to similar treatment for Arizona and New Mexico. If the Oklahoma people can keep themselves out of close association with the old Spanish American territories they may win the goal of statehood.

The congressmen are a little puzzled as to how they will justify their action in favoring the promotion of Oklahoma while New Mexico and Arizona are kept in the kindergarten class, but they believe the figures will fully justify them in making the distinction. All three territories will be represented here this winter, and the leading men of each will labor with congress on the statehood proposition.

The most insistent just now are the Arizona and New Mexico statesmen, but if the opinions of Congressmen already on the ground count for anything they might as well have staid at home. The feeling against elevating the two Mexican territories into states is surprisingly strong. Men who are ready and anxious to give Oklahoma a chance will vote and work against Arizona and New Mexico, and particularly the former.

Admit Yankee Oarsmen

London, Nov. 25.—A meeting of the stewards of the Henley regatta defeated by a vote of 19 to 5 the motion of W. H. Grenfell, the well-known oarsman and member of parliament, to exclude foreigners. This was the expected sequel to the opinion already expressed by the London, Thames, Kingston and other rowing clubs who are the backbone of the meeting. The rules remain unaltered.

FIGHT OVER SITE AT EAU CLAIRE

The Business Men in the Badger City Cannot Agree Over Location of the New Postoffice.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 25.—(Special)—The federal court is to be asked to set aside the action of the treasury department officials in the location of the site for the new postoffice building at Eau Claire, over which there has already been considerable wrangling. The matter is brought into court on condemnation proceedings, for the appointment of appraisers, but the contestants will endeavor to have the whole matter taken up by the court. Whether it has jurisdiction over the action of the treasury department is one of the points to be settled. Formal appearance in the case was made before Judge Bunn late on Saturday afternoon and Dec. 3 appointed as the date of the hearing. A. L. Sanborn and L. A. Doolittle are attorneys for Kerr and other contestants, while U. S. District Attorney W. H. Wheeler and Assistant H. T. Sheldon appear for the government.

Four sites were offered for the building. For one of these, most centrally located, and approved, it is claimed by the majority of the citizens, the price was $14,000, whereas the expenditure for a site was limited to $10,000. The remaining $4,000, however, was subscribed by citizens. But when an agent of the treasury department visited Eau Claire to select the site he picked out another location, stated by the contestants to be several blocks from the business center, on low ground liable to be flooded, and in an objectionable neighborhood. Sharp practice in securing the location is also charged.

RANSOM MUST BE PAID ON JANUARY 1

Miss Stone's Captors Threaten to Put Her to Death if Full Amount is Not Paid.

London, Nov. 25.—Word comes that Mr. Dickinson has received no reply to his ultimatum to the brigands. They now threaten to have Miss Stone put to death unless the ransom is paid in full by Jan. 1.

LUCKY SHOT WHICH BREAKS THE LAW

Bullet Which Killed Two Wisconsin Deer Will Result in Arrest of a Chicago Man.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 25.—Requisition papers will be taken out tomorrow to secure Charles H. Dahlgreen, the Chicago merchant who shot two deer with one bullet and consequently unwittingly broke the Wisconsin law providing that only two deer can be killed by each huntsman.

The charge on which he will be brought back to Wisconsin will be that of attempting to smuggle game through the state contrary to law. Mr. Dahlgreen shipped two of his three deer by express and sought to get the third home by putting the hide and hindquarters in a trunk. Mr. Dahlgreen will be prosecuted under the United States law known as the Lacey act, which provides a fine of $200 for each offense.

There are half a dozen other Chicago parties who have had game confiscated by the state wardens, one a resident of Oak Park, all of whose cases are now being investigated.

Married of Irish Descent

Few people are aware that Signor Marconi, who is soon about to get married, is the son of an Irish lady, the daughter of Mr. Andrew Jameson, who had a famous distillery near Enniscorthy, which ceased operations in 1840. Of his two daughters, one married Mr. A. S. Davis, and the other became the wife of Signor Marconi, whose son is the present world-famed hero of wireless telegraphy fame.

CLIMAX OF THE FOOTBALL YEAR; YALE'S DEFEAT A BIG SURPRISE

Finals in the Contest Will Come Next Thursday—Dispute Between Wolverines and Badgers.

With the football championship in the east disposed of the eyes of the fans will turn Chicagoward for the few days remaining of the midwinter season of 1901. Simultaneously with Harvard's great victory over Yale in the East by a score of 22 to 0 came the phenomenal score of the University of Michigan over Beloit in the West, and the 89 points rolled up by the wolverines might be regarded as the state settling for the dual contests which will ring down the curtain Thanksgiving day.

Judging from a theoretical standpoint the games this week should prove interesting. They should be record breakers in the number of points scored, arguing that both Michigan and Wisconsin will try their best to make a showing that puts the other in the shade. It is reasonable to suppose that Wisconsin will try to improve upon the score made by Michigan against Chicago and thus lay the foundation for a claim of a better team. Michigan more than doubled Wisconsin's score against Beloit, but this can hardly be regarded as a test, for the reason that Wisconsin and Beloit met early in the season.

SOME PROBLEMS FOR CONGRESS

Great Questions Before the National Body at the Coming Session.

MEETS ON MONDAY

The Hay-Pauncéfote Treaty Will Be the First Thing To Be Disposed Of.

LONG SESSION LIKELY

Washington, Nov. 25.—The fifty-seventh Congress will meet next Monday and all indications warrant the belief that it will be one of the busiest and most important congresses in years. David B. Henderson of Iowa will succeed himself as speaker of the House and Senator William P. Frye of Maine will preside over the Senate. The committees of the two houses will be made up much the same as at the last session. The President's message, now in the hands of the printer, will be given a final reading at the Cabinet session of Tuesday and will be delivered to Congress on the afternoon of Monday, December 2. These matters will come up for consideration in the following order: The Hay-Pauncéfote treaty, abrogating the old Clayton-Bulwer convention; a bill authorizing the construction of the Nicaragua Canal, with proper appropriations; a river and harbor bill, carrying appropriations of $70,000,000; Legislation for Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines; a trans-Pacific cable; reduction of the war revenue taxes; the pending reciprocity treaties; revision of the tariff schedules; an investigation of the war with Spain on the naval side and probably a special inquiry into the Sampson-Schley controversy; the Chinese exclusion question; tightening of the immigration laws to prevent the entrance of anarchists; the establishment of a Department of Commerce, with special functions with reference to trusts; a bill by Senator Ellkins to change some of the interstate commerce laws; ratification of a treaty for the acquisition of the Danish West Indies; ratification of treaties with Nicaragua and Costa Rica for the acquisition of territory for the Nicaragua Canal. In addition to these special features the regular legislation for the conduct of the government will be under consideration. Present indications are that Congress will not get through the work now mapped out until late in the summer, possibly August or September.

AFFAIRS IN TURKEY REACH A CRISIS

Constantinople, Nov. 25.—Discontent in Atonia has reached a crisis. Uslen Bey has collected ten thousand malcontents and has surrounded Scutari which is cut off from the outside world. The sultan is offering Uslen bribes and titles to desist as he fears the dispatch of troops would cause a general uprising. The sultan's overtures were rejected.

Rob at Victim's Door

Chicago, Nov. 25.—George A. Gibbs, the Republican committeeman for the Second ward and prominent South side politician, was the victim, at 1 a. m., of highwaymen, who at the point of revolvers held him in front of his home, 2000 Indiana avenue, and robbed him of $180 and his watch.

WORK OF LOCAL HUMANE SOCIETY

ANNUAL MEETING OF WISCONSIN SOCIETY AT MILWAUKEE.

Report of the Janesville Branch to the State Association—Eleven Cases of Cruelty to Animals Reported, and Ten Cases of Cruelty to Children Investigated.

The annual meeting of the Wisconsin Humane society will be held at the Plankinton house, Milwaukee, tomorrow evening. This work is being taken up in all parts of the state by the best people in each section. The Janesville branch has taken more interest the past year than ever before and make a report to the State society.

Mrs. John Peters, the efficient secretary will call on the members for the annual dues, as now cold weather is here, the work of the society is increasing.

Report of Janesville Society
The annual meeting was held in March last and the following officers were elected:

President—W. G. Palmer.
1st Vice President—T. V. Vankirk.
2nd Vice President—J. M. Whitehead.

3rd Vice President—Mrs. E. Butler.

Secretary—Mrs. John Peters.
Treasurer—E. B. Helmstedt.
Agent for the Society—S. B. Kenyon.

Committees were appointed from each ward of the city, who were to receive complaints and have general charge of the humane work of their ward.

First Ward—Dr. E. E. Loomis, Mrs. Frank E. Fifield, J. T. Wright, E. T. Fish, Miss Millie Chittenden.

Second Ward—C. C. McLean, Mrs. Wm. Smith, Rev. W. A. Goebel, Miss Mary Hadden, Mrs. John Peters.

Third Ward—H. W. Frick, W. H. Greenman, Mrs. E. F. Woods, Mrs. Lizzie Lucy, Stanley B. Smith.

Fourth Ward—Dr. J. W. St. John, Mrs. F. A. Capelle, Chas. Swartz, Rev. W. W. Woodside, Dr. Louise Crow.

Fifth Ward—Dean E. M. McGinnity, W. H. Jones, Herman Lemke, Paul Rudolph, Mrs. C. H. Rumrill.

The report of the secretary says: The work of the year to the present time is eleven cases of cruelty to animals reported and attended to, two cases of bird shooting stopped, ten cases of cruelty to children were investigated and stopped, four children placed in homes.

Mr. S. B. Kenyon, the agent of the society, has proved a very efficient officer. Besides the above cases there has been a large number of cases where owners of horses have been spoken to in regard to sick, overloaded and pounding horses, and in every case followed by good results.

The Janesville society has a small card, on one side is printed the list of officers and members of committees, the reverse side has the following: Wisconsin Humane Society, Janesville Branch. The object of this society is to prevent cruelty to all living creatures and to see that the laws of the state relating to prevention and the punishment of cruelty to persons or animals, is enforced.

The society is composed of about seventy-five of the leading people of Janesville. Attorneys for the society: H. G. Jeffris, Chas. E. Pierce, Wm. Smith, J. J. Cunningham.

LAWYERS REGARDING HUNTING OF DEER

How to avoid the killing of fellow sportsmen during the open hunting season is a question which is foremost in the minds of sportsmen at the present time. Year after year the list of accidental deaths by shooting seems to grow until this year it promises to be larger than ever.

Several states have tried different precautions but without result. In Maine a law was passed which provided that whoever, while on a hunting trip or in pursuit of wild or game birds, negligently or carelessly shoots, wounds or kills any human being, shall be punished by imprisonment not to exceed ten years, or by a fine not exceeding $1,000.

It was made the duty of county attorneys and sheriffs to investigate and carry out the law and any failure to do so made those officers liable to a fine of $1,000 and to be deposed from office. However, even this strict law did not help, in fact, their list this year is bigger than ever. This probably is due to the strict law. Ever since the list of accidents has been coming down from the north this fall there has been talk about making stricter laws for the protection of hunters during the coming season of the legislature.

However, according to the experience of the Maine hunters, stricter laws only serve to increase the number of deaths as the result of accidental shooting. Such a law would not serve to make a hunter more careful of others, it would only cause him to seek to protect himself. Human selfishness is stronger than sympathy and in case of an accidental shooting the hunter who has made a mistake would be more apt to conceal his identity than to stop and assist his victim.

Such being the case, many a poor fellow who, if his wounds were given proper care would come around all right, is forced to lay for hours unassisted owing to the severity of the law which has forced the man who was responsible for the accident to fly in order to avoid a long term in prison.

Just so long as fools are allowed to go hunting, then just so long will there be accidents unless some weapon can be provided that will not go off unless pointed at a deer. However, the Maine officials and hunters have hit upon an idea which, if it can be put into effect, will add greatly towards decreasing the number of accidental shootings.

The plan which has been suggested is to bar the use of rifles, replacing them with shot guns. It is claimed that while the range of the two is vastly different, yet a shot gun would be sufficient to bring down a deer at a reasonable distance, while it would not be effective at as great a distance as a rifle, and it is most always the case that the damage is done at long range, exceeding that of a shot gun.

EX-GOV. SCOFIELD AS A DEER HUNTER

Governor Scofield and a few friends were sitting in the lobby of the Plankinton when the subject of deer hunting was broached.

"Do you know," said the governor, "that I never shot at a deer but once, and," he added with a quiet smile, "I didn't hit him. Years ago the woods were full of deer, and I used to run across dozens of them every day when cruising around in the timber, but I never cared to hunt, much less kill them. The time when I fired my one lone shot at a deer was a year when my brother came from Pennsylvania to make me a visit. He was a hunter and wanted to kill a deer. One night I said to him, 'Jim, tomorrow morning we will go out and get a deer.'"

"The next morning we started bright and early for the cabin of a man who had a pack of hounds. I told him what we wanted and he got out his hounds. There were several in the party and on our way down to the runways I whispered in Scrip's ear: 'Put me where no deer will ever come, as I don't want to shoot one.' When he placed us he put me at a point where he said a deer was never known to come.

"I sat down with my back against a big tree taking it easy, willing that the others should have the fun. In a short time we heard the hounds coming in our direction. They came nearer and nearer when suddenly there jumped out into the trail one of the biggest and handsomest deer I ever saw. He wasn't more than ten yards from me and was just as startled as I. My gun was in my hand, but I didn't want to kill anything, and just sat watching him. Then there came a cry from one of the party who was posted a short distance above me:

"You cursed fool, why don't you shoot that deer right in front of you?"

"At that I raised my rifle and fired. Of course, I didn't hit the deer. I think my rifle was aimed nearer to the top of the trees. Anyhow, the deer got away. The rest of the party bagged one among them, though; there were nine at one time in the river, but all got away except one.

"The only time I came near killing a deer was once when I was out cruising. I came along one afternoon, tired out, so tired, in fact, that when I came to a windfall, instead of stepping over it I sat down on the trunk and then swung my legs over. As my feet came down on the other side they struck a deer, which I suppose had been asleep under the log and did not hear me coming. He gave a bound that landed him twenty feet away and stood broadside to me, staring wild-eyed as though he was dazed. I had a revolver with me, and drawing it I took aim at him, thinking I would hit him through the heart.

"As I was taking aim the thought came into my mind, 'Old fellow, you're just as tired as I am. Why should I kill you? If I do I am in too big a hurry and too tired to carry the carcass out, and would have to leave it here. Why should I take your life? I lowered the revolver and put it back in the case. A moment more the deer had come to himself and was flying through the woods with big leaps. That is the nearest I ever came to killing a deer."

The beauty thief has come to stay. Unless you drive the pimples and blackheads away:
Do this: don't look like a fright;

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has discovered for the first time a constitutional cure, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

A number of hunters were out after wild geese yesterday and a number were bagged. Geese are very plentiful this fall and are feeding on the unhusked corn and in the rye fields.

RECEPTION BY THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

Very Happy Occasion in Honor of the Class Football Team on Last Saturday Night.

The banquet and reception given by the members of the Sophomore class in honor of their football team, at the High school building on Saturday evening, was a very happy occasion and was voted a perfect success by all who participated in its pleasures. Besides the members of the football team, the guests of honor included Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Denison, Supt. H. C. Buell, Miss Hostetter and Prof. William Norris, the athletic coach.

The festivities began at 6 o'clock and the guests were pleasantly surprised at the beauty of the scene to which they were welcomed. The great hallway on the second floor of the building had been transformed into an elegant reception room by the lavish use of rugs, screens, chairs, couches and an abundance of sofa cushions. A softened light came from the incandescent lights which had been shaded with red paper. Footballs were hung from chandeliers and the floral decorations were red and white carnations, red and white being the class colors. The stairway, leading to this handsome parlor, was also prettily decorated, a cosy retreat being arranged on the landing.

The banquet was served in the gymnasium, which was hung with red and white hunting, under which four long tables were arranged in the shape of a cross, a small table decorated with ferns and flowers forming the center. Red and white carnations were placed at each plate. The supper was prettily served by the following members of the class: Calla Lacey, Myrtle Strang, Cora Severhill, Gertrude Brown, Rose Dixon, Sadie Granger, Edna Parker, Ida Lester, George Searcliff, Russell Zehlinger, Malcolm Jeffries, Curtis Carpenter, Clarence Van Deyn and Will Harper. The following was the menu:

Sliced Chicken Saratoga Chips
Rolls Pickles Olives
Egg Salad Zephyrettes
Coffee
Lemon Ice Cake
Salted Peanuts

During the supper exquisite mandolin and guitar music was furnished by Harry Haggart, Lawrence Doty and Edward Wray. After the banquet came the program of toasts, Channing Kent, president of the class, making a most efficient toastmaster.

A bright and pleasing address of welcome was happily given by Miss Hatfield Decker. Walter Flaherty, captain of the team, responded with a few well-chosen words. Miss Jean Powell gave a witty toast to "The Football Team" and Walter Carle eulogized "The Sophomore Girls" as excelling all others in class spirit, loyalty and good looks. One of the most enjoyable toasts was Miss Anna DeForest's alphabetical rhyme in which the various Sophomore boys were so neatly toasted that each verse was greeted with shouts of laughter.

Rev. Robert C. Denison told some of the reasons why he is so interested in athletics and said that a football game was like a little piece out of real life, and the same spirit of courage and endurance needed in the game was also needed in the stern experiences of life.

Supt. Buell spoke on "Interscholastic Football" and its value. He thought the plan of class teams better than that of a school team because more boys derived the benefit of the exercise and training. In his opinion, the Janesville school had taken a step in advance of the other schools.

The games of the evening began with a march for which Bernard Kearney played the piano, after which the members of the football team lined up and went through every style of play used during the season. It was nearly midnight before the last of the merry company departed from the school.

KILTIES SCORED AN INSTANT HIT

"The Kilties," the military band of the 48th Highlander regiment of Toronto, Canada, who will be here on Wednesday will be accorded a warm reception. The Buffalo N. Y. Review has the following on their performance.

"The Kilties came yesterday. They came with their sporrans, their glengarrys, their dirks, their plaids, and every one of them looking the part of the braw Scot from head to heels. The Kilties are officially known as the 48th Highlanders, but now they are on a concert tour under the leadership of John Slatter and by permission of His Majesty's government in Canada. They were here once before, when the 48th regiment came to the exposition and participated in the Dominion Day exercises. They made many friends at that time, and it seemed as if all these friends and more were present to greet them yesterday."

The program yesterday was a most interesting one, and included selections of the brass band, the famous vocal choir, the pipers, under the leadership of Pipe Major Beaton, and the sword dances, all of which were pleasing to the average spectators and which drove those which had an abundance of Scotch blood nearly to the point of jumping into the bandstand and going through the same programme. The playing of the bagpipes and the highland dances were particularly interesting.

There will be a matinee performance beginning at 3:30 o'clock. The evening performance begins at 8 o'clock.

"A Secret Warrant" is the play announced for Friday, Nov. 29 at Manager Myers' cosy theatre. Willis Granger, the brilliant young actor, will be seen in the role of Louis De Beaumont, assisted by a large company of clever actors, carefully selected by M. W. Hanley and Son, under whose able direction the tour is managed.

The best minstrel show seen in this city in many years played to a small house in the Myers Grand Saturday evening. From start to finish the performance was strictly high grade and West's minstrels won high honors even if the management did not reap a financial harvest. There was plenty of fun but no clap trap minstrelsy.

Few, if any of the public who shrieked with laughter at the Myers Grand, Saturday evening, over the jokes and funny sayings of Billy Van, one of the clever end men in West's Minstrel show, knew that while the comedians was making fun for them, he himself was suffering intense pain. A severely granulated eyelid made the slightest movement of the eye, or lid excruciating torture. Yet, notwithstanding this, he yielded to the demand of the audience for several encores after his parol song in the first part, gave his jokes, with perhaps a little more slowness than usual when he answered "I don't feel very well" to the interlocutor's query as to his health and amused the audience was accompanied by the drollest facial expressions every one of which meant fresh suffering. He had spent almost the entire afternoon at Dr. Thorne's office, trying to get some relief and as he himself afterward said "It was pretty tough work trying to make people laugh when he felt as though his eye were going going to pop out of his head every minute."

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.

A Cure For It—Not a Patent Cure-All Nor a Modern Miracle But Simply a Rational Cure for Dyspepsia.

In these days of humbuggery and deception, the manufacturers of patent medicines, as a rule, seem to think their medicines will not sell unless they claim that it will cure every disease under the sun. And they never think of leaving out dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They are sure to claim that their nostrum is absolutely certain to cure every dyspeptic and he need look no further.

In the face of these absurd claims it is refreshing to note that the proprietors of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have carefully refrained from making undue claims or false representations regarding the merits of this most excellent remedy for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They make but one claim for it, and that is, that for indigestion and various stomach troubles Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is a radical cure. They go no farther than this and any man or woman suffering from indigestion, chronic or nervous dyspepsia, who will give the remedy a trial will find that nothing is claimed for it, that the facts will not fully sustain it.

It is a modern discovery, composed of harmless vegetable ingredients acceptable to the weakest or most delicate stomach. Its great success in curing stomach troubles is due to the fact that the medicinal properties are such that it will digest whatever wholesome food is taken into the stomach, no matter whether the stomach is in good working order or not. It rests the overworked organ and replenishes the body, the blood, the nerves, creating a healthy appetite, gives refreshing sleep and the blessings which always accompany a good digestion and proper assimilation of food.

In Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets no dieting is required. Simply eat plenty of wholesome food and take these tablets at each meal, thus assisting and resting the stomach which rapidly regains its proper digestive power, when the tablets will be no longer required.

Nervous dyspepsia is simply a condition in which some portion or portions of the nervous system, are not properly nourished. Good digestion invigorates the nervous system and every organ in the body. Any druggist will tell you that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give universal satisfaction.

Mrs. Fredericka Sophie Klenow Dead
At a few minutes past 1 o'clock Sunday morning Mrs. Fredericka Sophie Klenow, widow of the late Carl Edward Klenow, passed into the world beyond after a lingering illness, at her home, 156 Cornelia street. The deceased had lived in this city for many years and was held in high esteem by her large circle of friends. She was born in Germany, December 27, 1830, and came to this country many years ago. Three sons, Frederick Wilhelm, Carl Edward and Herman Albert are left to mourn their mother's death, which is the third affliction the family has suffered during the last year, a brother and sister having passed away during that period. The bereaved sons have the sympathy of the entire community.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST
Fair tonight; Tuesday cooler.

BUTTER STATESMAN

A lot of western statesmen who think it necessary for the promotion of their political fortunes to corral the cow pasture vote are loaded for another fight against the oleo imitation butter industry. The Washington correspondent of the Chronicle reports that not fewer than thirty of them are already prepared and eager to introduce, each for himself and his own glory and profit, a bill to give those who pretend to make butter from cows' milk a monopoly of the business.

One of these able statesmen is Tawney of Minnesota, the gentleman who is busy about reducing the revenues of the national government. This gentleman is reticent about the special features of his bill for fear some other bidder for the creamery vote will steal his thunder. It is understood that Mr. Tawney proposes to make the tax on imitation butter 5 cents per pound, instead of 10 cents in one version of the Groat bill. The opponents of the Groat bill objected to that tax because the 10-cent tax would kill the oleomargarine industry. This objection proved formidable. In fact, it is understood to have been the objection which proved fatal. Mr. Tawney has figured out that the 5-cent tax will not quite kill that industry, and, therefore, he concludes that it will not be objectionable.

Perhaps he understands the workings of the statesman intellect better than outsiders can be supposed to understand them. To the mind which considers the right and wrong of things and appreciates the proper function of government it will make no sort of difference whether the tax is 10 or 5 or 2 cents per pound, or whether it kills or half kills or merely cripples the oleomargarine industry.

The real point is that the imposition of any such tax would be a gross abuse of the taxing power. It is not pretended that any tax on imitation butter is needed for revenue. In fact, the government is getting too much instead of too little revenue, and we are consequently hearing of all sorts of schemes for spending the surplus.

The proposed tax is demanded for the sole purpose of giving a monopoly, more or less complete to those who make butter from cows' milk or who want a monopoly of the business of secret and fraudulent adulteration. Its purpose is to deprive people of a cheap and harmless substitute for butter and force them, especially those who are comparatively poor, to pay high prices for both imitation and genuine butter of a particular and comparatively small class.

The proposed measure would be an indefensible and mean extension of protectionism. Whether the tax is made 10 or 2 cents per pound makes no difference with the principle—Chicago Chronicle.

The "Chronicle" has stated the whole thing in a nut shell. The "oleo" bill is a game of politics pure and simple and smacks of class legislation as much as does the ship subsidy bill. The Gazette has been denounced by its farmer constituency for not supporting the measure, but with due respect to this class of readers, will say, that the paper does not believe in the principle involved, and can not consistently advocate the doctrine.

Rock county has a population of about 46,000. Of this number 3,000 are farmers, many of them interested in dairy products. The other 43,000, 14,000 of whom reside in Jansville are also interested in dairy products to the extent of being consumers. Many of these people are compelled to buy oleomargarine as a substitute for butter and they feel that they have as good a right to do so as when they buy postum cereal as a substitute for coffee.

There is no deception about it in either case. The bread is a little more palatable with a dressing than without, and the meal a little more sociable with a hot drink, than with clster water as a beverage. That's all there is to it.

The "oleo" bill may have a tendency to stimulate the price of butter, but it won't increase its use, and it will deprive thousands of poor people of a substitute that contributed to their comfort. It is doubtful if enough butter statesmen can be found to pass the measure.

AMERICAN TIN PLATE.

The American Tin Plate Company is about to equip a new factory with improved machinery, that will do about two-thirds of the work now done by hand, and takes the place of skilled labor. The old process of rolling the plates by hand, which has been in use for the last half century, will be done away with, and the cost of production will be so reduced that the trade will be revolutionized, and in a few years America will become the world's center for tin plate goods.

The inventive genius of the age is the great marvel of civilization, and this country leads the procession in the industrial world. Protection has stimulated and encouraged home manufacturing, and competition has taxed inventive genius to an extent never known before. Many lines of business, not only invent and patent their own equipment, but manufacture their own special machinery. This is one reason why industrial combinations are organized.

It is possible with these combinations for a product to gain advantage of improvements that have heretofore been exclusive, and when these forces of skill are united, every department becomes a specialty, and the cost of production is cheapened.

While these improvements are a hardship to the class of labor that they replace, the masses reap the benefits, and through them the country is able to compete with all comers. Labor adjusts itself to new conditions, and active employment in other lines soon furnishes work at good wages, and in the readjustment individual losses are made good.

The American Tin Plate industry will affect Wales more than any other country, but many of the tin workers of that land have already come to our shores, and others will follow.

THE PACE THAT KILLS

The age in which we live is a fast age.

Everybody has an ambition to keep up with the procession.

It is a laudable ambition, and nothing to be ashamed of.

Better make the effort and get left in the race than to sit on the fence and watch the crowd.

It makes a difference of course what direction ambition takes and what object is to be attained.

If the aim is lofty and the ambition wholesome you can't work too hard six days in the week or rest too hard on the seventh.

And yet this rapid pace sometimes results in slow suicide, and friends gather around the casket and say, poor fellow, he worked himself to death.

Better on the whole to take time to live, and get a little out of every day as it comes along. The vacancy ahead is noted for length and durability.

It is well for humanity that the pace that kills, is invited to halt on Saturday night and take a day off for rest. The church is a part of the rest-day, and a good place to forget the rush and worry of the pace that kills.

PRESS COMMENT

Hudson Star and Times: Hon. A. R. Hall, the Duke of Knapp, Dunn county, Wisconsin, had much to say about the inquiry of a governor franking a blooded cow by favor of the express companies, but he was still as an oyster when "reformers" were deadheaded all over the state, contrary to the anti-pass law specifically made and provided. Why this thunders?

La Crosse Republican and Leader: While the hazing bacilli have been entirely eliminated from West Point, the commission finds the air fairly pregnant with germs of equal destructiveness.

Milwaukee Free Press: The Jansville Gazette says Gov. La Follette is a "dangerous man." One of the first manifestations of the governor's frightful mania was to throw Blas out of the Blind school.—Madison Journal.

But Stat-wart George Washington Bishop claims the credit for that; and, unlike Admiral Schley, he does not seem to think there is glory enough in it to pass any of it around.

Evening Wisconsin: The Bulgarian brigands who hold Miss Stone seem to be slowly getting into the position of the Frenchman who found pleasure in hunting "ze tigre," until the latter began to hunt "ze Frenchman."

Marquette Eagle: There has been much said and written regarding Congressman Babcock's proposed tariff reform ideas, and most of it has been without knowledge of the facts. Mr. Babcock has repeatedly insisted that his proposed reductions would not affect any of the protected industries and yet the free traders have hailed him as a deliverer. The less tinkering with the tariff that is done by the congress, the better will the voters be pleased, and the more stable will be the business conditions.

Stoughton Hub: That "True Story" and Haugen's Superior speech are two bombs planted under Senator Spooner's political house that failed to explode. Wet fuse.

Milwaukee News: And now it has developed that the Reflections of a Bachelor are written by a married man whose philosophy of the unmarried state has received its inspiration from persistent pondering on what might have been.

Evening Wisconsin: By his reply to the proposal to raise a fund for his benefit Admiral Schley has confirmed the general impression as to his manly independence. He says that the report of his expenses on account of the court of inquiry is exaggerated, and he politely declines to receive financial aid.

Racine Journal: The state university is not a political institution and the appearance of members on the stump next year on behalf of Governor La Follette, as is asserted they will do, is distinctively antagonistic to the welfare of the university. It is immaterial in whose interests such students might appear for the thing is highly improper and repulsive to all who appreciate the fitness of things.

Appleton Crescent: There was a time when the United States imported horses regularly and had practically no exporting record in that line. In the last fiscal year, however, we report 65,000 head, and in the past five years have sold horses abroad to the value of $17,000,000.

Fond du Lac Reporter: The Milwaukee Free Press contends that every reference that is made to that special train by the democratic press is dirty, while that which emanates from the republican press is contemptible. Had a paper which has for its motto "Decency and Truth" made that statement it would be considered seriously, but coming as it does from the Free Press it is labeled "a joke," and put on ice.

Albany Vindicator: Pat Crowe feels that he is outclassed by the Bulgarian kidnappers and wants to come in and quit.

Sunday School Social: The social of the Christ church Sunday school was held at the parish house on Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock and for two hours the children had a merry time with romping games and other amusements. A short but very interesting program was given by the children after which the balance of the afternoon was devoted to games, the Sunday school teachers assisting the little people to have the best possible kind of a time. Light refreshments, including many of the dainties of which children are especially fond, were served. Those who had charge of the social and aided in making it a complete and delightful success were Mesdames A. H. Barrington, William Ruger and Addie Pierce, Misses Mary Bostwick, Abbie Atwood, Margaret Woodruff and Marjia Jackman and Kyrie A. Morris.

Railroad Gives Increase in Pay: Louisville, Ky., Nov. 25.—About one thousand shopmen employed by the Louisville & Nashville railroad have received a voluntary increase of 10 per cent in their pay. The order affects all who formerly drew $1.75 a day or over, and includes carpenters, blacksmiths, painters, machinists and car builders generally. The increase was unheralded and was first known by the men when they received their pay envelopes. As the Louisville & Nashville shops are non-union the surprise among those who belong to unions was great, especially in view of the failure of the strike of the railway machinists this year.

Rejoins Her Husband: Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 25.—Mrs. Harry C. Barnes refused to receive her husband son of Governor Barnes, and captain of volunteers, when he returned from the Philippines last spring. Since then they have lived apart. Without any one's knowledge she has just left with her son to join her husband, now first lieutenant of artillery, at Fort Clark, Texas. Before leaving she said: "This time it is until death do us part."

Place and Not Wage to Blame: Washington, Nov. 25.—In a special bulletin on the servant girl problem, the Industrial Commission maintains that domestic service is unsatisfactory. It is not due to wages, but from the lower social status given a servant girl than is accorded sister workers in factories and other places. The commission maintains that relief from the present evil is in placing domestic service on a business basis.

Budget for Austria-Hungary: Budapest, Nov. 25.—Dr. Lukacs, minister of finance, introduced in the underhouse the budget for 1902. In this the revenue is estimated at 1,056,570,018 crowns and the expenditures at 1,084,749,083 crowns.

Telegraphic Clashes: Judge M. A. Rogers of Denver committed suicide by blowing himself to pieces with dynamite.

Alson J. Streeter died at his home in New Windsor, Ill. Labor candidate for president in 1888.

Bodies of the eight officials of the Peacemakers mine at Bluefields, W. Va., who were killed by fire damp, recovered by searchers.

New submarine boat Fulton remains under water fifteen hours. Men who spent the night at the bottom of Peconic Bay enjoyed the experience. Test is considered highly satisfactory.

Kentucky troops raided the camp of striking union miners near Nortonville. Twenty-one strikers are taken prisoners and the camp is abolished.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt, head of the family of millionaires, has a son and heir.

Sunday's advent in Chicago was marked by two crimes, the results of which were that a woman was burned to death by a lamp in the hands of an angry man, and a man lies at the county hospital in a critical condition from gunshot wounds inflicted by unidentified assailants.

Durability of Cypress Wood: Sections of old water pipes of cypress that had been underground and in use for nearly a century were recently exhumed at New Orleans, and to the surprise of all the wood was perfectly preserved and as hard as when laid. They were part of the first water works system of the city, and it is thought the wood was from trees 100 years old when laid.

To Form New Ball League.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 25.—It is announced by baseball men that a meeting of magnates will be held here this week to wind up the affairs of the Western League and to arrange the details of the organization of a new league to be known as the American Association. That the plan to organize the new association has been fully outlined and agreed upon there remains no doubt. The circuit is to be composed of Chicago, Kansas City, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Indianapolis, Milwaukee, Louisville and either St. Louis, Toledo or Columbus.

Asks Damages from Mexico.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 25.—Captain A. W. Hall, formerly of the San Francisco schooner Saddle, has landed here from the British ship Pass of Metfort and will hasten to Washington to lay before the State Department what he believes to be a good cause for damages against the Mexican government. He claims to have been arrested and imprisoned without cause while on a pearl fishing expedition, in the Gulf of California. After two months' confinement he succeeded in making his escape.

THANKSGIVING IN ANCIENT TIMES

[Copyright, 1901, by William L. Vail.]
In some form the gathering of the harvest has been celebrated by agricultural communities since the days of classical antiquity. Ceres, sometimes called queen of the harvest, is the subject of endless eulogies in the tales of mythological times.

Demeter, or Ceres, was the goddess protecting corn and agriculture in general. The fame of this goddess and a worship instituted by her extended over the east. She was the mother of Persephone, the beautiful maiden whom Hades, with the help of her father, Zeus, carried off.

In despair at the loss of her daughter Ceres wandered over the face of the earth and finally, in the disguise of an old woman, found a home in Eleusis. There she at length revealed herself and caused a temple to be built. Taking up her abode in it, a year of famine came over the land. The soil yielded no produce. In vain the people plowed and sowed seed. The race was in danger of perishing, and Zeus in despair begged Ceres to come back to Olympus, but she would not return to him nor permit the earth to bring forth until she had seen her daughter. Zeus then prevailed upon the captors of Persephone to release her, and the fair one was conducted to Eleusis. The meeting between mother and daughter was a joyous one, and Zeus sent a messenger to invite his spouse and their offspring back to heaven. Ceres complied.

And instant, from the deep soiled cornfields fruit sprang up; with leaves and flowers the whole wide earth was taken.

This fiction is taken as a parable to show the secret life of nature and the development of food from a seed of grain buried in the earth. Ceres is commonly represented with a sickle in her right hand. A wreath of wheat confines her hair, and a cornucopia, type of plenty, is placed near her to represent fruitful harvests.

The Eleusinian mysteries originated in the worship set up to Ceres at Eleusis. Little is positively known of the nature of this secret worship, except that it was ennobling to the mind and conduct. One festival sacred to Ceres and Persephone lasted from Sept. 10 to Sept. 20. Although others ideas were involved in the ceremonies, the occasion, in the Greek and Roman world at least, was one of rejoicing for the bounties of the harvest.

The Jews in all lands hold a week of thanksgiving at the close of the summer season. This is the feast of the tabernacles founded by Moses. In the course of their peregrinations the Israelites on the way to the promised land dwelt in booths, and the event is commemorated by taking the meals of the feast in tents or temporary shelters. The roof must admit a view of the sky, and is usually made of the branches of trees. The more plious of the race sleep under this green roof. The members of a family, or sometimes a whole community, club together and erect large tabernacles of boughs. This festival is also called the feast of the Ingathering. It is mentioned in the twenty-third chapter of Exodus, sixteenth verse, as "the feast of the Ingathering at the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in the labors of the field."

The rules of the feast are more explicitly laid down in the twenty-third chapter of Leviticus, commencing with the thirty-third verse, as follows:

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying: Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles, for seven days unto the Lord. Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the Lord seven days; on the first day shall be a Sabbath and on the eighth day shall be a Sabbath.

And ye shall take you on the first day the boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees and the boughs of thick trees and willows of the brook.

And ye shall dwell in booths seven days; all that are Israelites born shall dwell in booths. The idea of the tabernacles and the ingathering of the harvest are more closely combined in the sixteenth chapter of Deuteronomy, the thirteenth verse, which says:

Thou shalt observe the feast of the tabernacles seven days, after thou hast gathered in thy corn and wine.

The nearest approach to the modern Thanksgiving festival as it is kept in the country was the harvest home of the English farm people, formerly celebrated by the whole rural community with universal merry-making, feasting, songs and dances. The last load of corn from the field was crowned with flowers, having, besides, an image richly dressed to typify Ceres, the queen of the harvest. When the last load reached the barn, the joyous harvesters sang in chorus:

We have plowed, we have sowed,
We have reaped, we have mowed,
We have brought home every load.
Hip, hip, hip, harvest home!

Poison Oak Poison Ivy

are among the best known of the many dangerous wild plants and shrubs. To touch or handle them quickly produces swelling and inflammation with intense itching and burning of the skin. The eruption soon disappears, the sufferer hopes forever; but almost as soon as the little blisters and pustules appear the poison has reached the blood, and will break out at regular intervals and each time in a more aggravated form. This poison will linger in the system for years, and every atom of it must be forced out of the blood before you can expect a perfect, permanent cure.

SSS Nature's Antidote FOR Nature's Poisons, is the only cure for Poison Oak, Poison Ivy, and all noxious plants. It is composed exclusively of roots and herbs. Now is the time to get the poison out of your system, as delay makes your condition worse. Don't experiment longer with salves, washes and soaps—they never cure.

Mr. S. M. Marshall, bookkeeper of the Atlanta (Ga.) Gas Light Co., was poisoned with Poison Oak. He took Sulphur, Arsenic and various other drugs, and applied externally numerous lotions and salves with no benefit. At times the swelling and inflammation was so severe he was almost blind. For eight years the poison would break out every season. His condition was much improved after taking one bottle of S. S. S., and a few bottles cleared his blood of the poison, and all evidence of the disease disappeared.

People are often poisoned without knowing when or how. Explain your case fully to our physicians, and they will cheerfully give such information and advice as you require, without charge, and we will send at the same time an interesting book on Blood and Skin Diseases.

SHOCKING DEATH ON THE TRACK

BODY OF JAMES HOLMES FOUND FEARFULLY MANGLED.

The Accident is a Mystery to the Police and His Relatives—He Was Thirty-Three Years of Age—Coroner's Jury Impaneled to Investigate the Matter.

Exactly how James Holmes met his death on Saturday night will probably remain a mystery. His mangled body was found about 8:30 o'clock shortly after a passenger train had passed, lying along side the Northwestern tracks just south of the switch tower near Eastern avenue. It was near the junction of the main line and siding. When discovered by the switching crew the body was all doubled up the head being under the feet pointing towards the north. It looked as if it had been struck by an engine and shoved for some distance.

A call was sent for the patrol wagon and the body conveyed to Kimball's undertaking rooms where it was prepared for burial. At first the body could not be identified as there were no papers or anything in the clothing by which a clue could be obtained. Chief Hogan was of the opinion that it was that of James Holmes, who had been working for the Hayes Bros. Co. near Beloit and came up here Friday night. Sunday morning the body was identified as that of James Holmes by the brother-in-law, Michael Riley, who resides in this city.

The body was horribly mutilated the entire top of the head being cut off, sloping from the shoulder to the elbow, the left foot crushed and the toes all cut off. His stomach was ripped open and the intestines protruded, ripped and cut in a terrible manner.

He appeared to be about 45 years of age, five feet eight or ten inches tall and would weigh about 175 pounds. He was a well-dressed man and his clothing was all good. He has quite a heavy mustache of dark brown. The only thing found on the man's person was a spool of black thread and two needles and a partial package of tobacco.

Holmes came up from Beloit on Friday night and was seen by Chief Hogan shortly after he arrived. He wanted to know if a conductor had a right to collect cash fare. He exhibited a cash fare slip given him by the conductor for his money, and a ticket from Beloit to this city. Chief Hogan asked him why he did not give the conductor his ticket instead of paying him cash.

He said he could not find his ticket and that the railroad company would not give him back his money he paid for the ticket. He was around the city Saturday and was shaved at a South River street barber shop Saturday afternoon.

Some parties who saw the remains Saturday night said they saw a man answering his description on Jefferson street about six o'clock and that he appeared to be under the influence of liquor. It is more than likely that while in this condition he wandered onto the tracks and was struck by a passing passenger train.

He has two sisters living in this city, Mrs. John Whalen and Mrs. John Driscoll. About eleven o'clock Saturday night the authorities were informed that his left arm which could not be found when the body was removed from the tracks had been found by the switching men and the patrol wagon was again sent up to the scene of the accident to bring down the arm.

Holmes was thirty-five years of age and was born near Watertown in Dodge county. He had three sisters in this city, the third one being Mrs. Michael Riley, of 9 Jefferson street. Mr. Riley stated this morning that Holmes was at his house at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night and at that time put on his hat, overcoat and overshoes and started down town. He appeared to be all right at that time and as he always stopped at Mrs. Riley's, when in town nothing was thought of his going away and no one asked him where he was going.

The left hand which was cut off and his hat were found about three hundred feet south of where the body was discovered and would indicate that the body was carried along some distance by the train before it was dropped. It also shows that the train that hit him must have been coming from the south. The body was taken to Mrs. Whalen's home this morning and prepared for burial. The funeral will be held from St. Patrick's church on Tuesday morning at 9 a. m.

Justice Earle issued a venire for a coroner's jury this morning and Chief Hogan summoned J. C. Spencer, E. Boots, C. C. MacLean, Henry Tall, J. H. Watson and Charles Horn. The jury in company with Justice Earle, adjourned to Kimball's undertaking rooms and viewed the remains. The inquest was then adjourned to meet at Justice Earle's office at 2 p. m. to hear testimony.

The jury after an investigation found that James Holmes came to his death at the city of Janesville on Nov. 23rd, 1901, accidentally, by reason of being run over by a train on the tracks of the Chicago & Northwestern railway company.

Waukesha is a good resort for this sort of light headed boys, and the sooner they are committed to a course of state training, the better for society and the boy.

The power for the stereopticon used by Ernest Seton-Thompson in his addresses tomorrow afternoon and evening will be furnished by the Janesville Electric company. Mr. Thompson and his assistant will arrive in the city tomorrow morning and it will take until the time of the matinee to get his apparatus ready.

The scholars of the public schools are looking forward to the coming of Seton-Thompson tomorrow and the prospect is that they will be there in full force and the price which has been made to them would certainly warrant it. Extra seating capacity has been arranged and there will be room for all.

JOSEPH ZASTOUPIL IS DRIVEN CRAZY

Suit of His Daughter Against the City for Damages, Drives Him To It.

Joseph Zastoupil, who resides on Palm street near Western avenue, was taken in charge yesterday by Chief Hogan and Officer Brown and locked in a cell in the city lock-up. The police were notified yesterday morning that Zastoupil had gone crazy and had broken all the dishes and furniture in the house and had a rifle and was threatening to kill the family. Chief Hogan and Officer Brown went at once to the scene of the trouble and took him in charge.

It seems that Zastoupil's daughter Anna was injured about a year and a half ago on a defective sidewalk near Rudolph grocery and an action was brought against the city for a large amount of damages. When the case came up for trial at his term of the circuit court it was found that the pleadings were defective and that the plaintiff had lost her right to recover from the city.

City Attorney Burpee made them a proposition to settle the case for $100 and have the action dismissed. The girl's attorney and general guardian, seeing how matters stood were willing to settle as the city attorney desired.

When her father heard how matters stood he seemed to go crazy and at once started in to demolish everything about the house which made it necessary to lock him up.

Chief Hogan has not yet decided what he will do with him but will keep him locked up for a day or two.

A Unique Reception

The reception given by Miss Blanche Fuller, Sweeney and her guests, Miss Brown and Miss Wells, at the Grand Hotel Saturday evening was a unique and delightful social event which was enjoyed by about fifty of the young ladies and gentlemen friends of Janesville's younger social circle.

In the new and handsomely furnished rooms on the second floor of the addition to the hotel the three charming hostesses, assisted by J. F. Sweeney, received their guests graciously. The rooms were decorated with a wealth of roses, carnations and chrysanthemums while from the balcony above came the strains of most exquisite mandolin and guitar music, rendered by Harry Hagart, Lawrence Doty and Edward Wray.

The reception hours were from 8 to 10 and it was a delightful season of sociability. During the evening dainty light refreshments were prettily served in the music room by Mrs. J. F. Sweeney, assisted by Mrs. J. P. Pember and Miss Adelaide Best.

In the Churches Yesterday

The prevalence of sickness had its effect upon the churches yesterday and sermons were preached in two of the pulpits by visiting ministers.

Rev. Richard M. Vaughan is still confined to his home by his serious illness and Rev. W. F. Bowen, of Beloit, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, preached to the people of the Baptist church at the morning service.

Rev. Robert C. Denison was suffering from a severe cold and hoarseness and as a consequence there was no evening service at the Congregational church and at the morning service the sermon was preached by the Rev. Henry Wingate, a returned missionary from Turkey. He gave an interesting account of the missionary work in Turkey and the congregation listened to his message with special pleasure because Rev. Wingate is an old Janesville boy and a son of John Wingate, of Minneapolis, who was at one time one of the leading citizens of Janesville. Rev. Wingate also spoke very entertainingly to the Congregational Sunday school. He is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Ashcraft.

Metzke-Thurow Marriage

Miss Augusta Metzke and Herman Thurow were happily married Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. Robert C. Denison, pastor of the Congregational church. Both young people are newcomers to this city, coming here from Juneau county. They will make their home in this city and the best wishes of their friends will attend them as they move forward on life's journey together.

PRESENT THE CUP TO SENIOR CLASS

Interesting Exercises at the Opening of the High School This Morning.

The opening exercises at the High school were unusually interesting this morning, it being the occasion of the formal presentation of the football championship cup to the Senior class. The section of the room, occupied by the Seniors, was draped in red and gold and the cup was also decorated with the class colors. This is the second time that the class of '02 has won the cup and the High school championship in annual competition.

The cup was awarded by the Rev. Robert C. Denison, its donor, who spoke briefly to the High school students on the importance of keeping football a gentleman's game.

Arthur Ryan in behalf of the Seniors and the football team, accepted the cup gracefully and spoke a few words of acknowledgement and earnest gratitude to Rev. Denison.

FURROWS ON THE FARM.

The farmer is a busy man. To be busy does not mean that work must be done whether it counts or not. There is a general misunderstanding of the word work. There are those who believe that it means manual labor and very often it looms up in importance before everything else. Farming is a business and every farmer ought to be diligent in business, and not a slave to everyday work. One ought to consider what work can be done to advantage and either do it or have it done. Sometimes a letter written may be the means of bringing as much as the combined labor of a whole week would do. It may be that reading an advertisement would be of more value to a farmer than several days spent in the hardest kind of labor. What is very much needed is to labor less and to pay more attention to business.

Cattle feeders should remember that it is nothing but the well-fatted cattle that will bring good prices after a drought. At such times the market will be glutted with half fatted stuff which has a tendency to keep down prices.

It does not require much stretch of memory to remember when the roads were very bad. A friend lives several miles from town and the postoffice and he has a telephone in the house and the postoffice is a "central" of the town. He was looking for a very important letter from a business house. He could not take the time to go so far over the bad roads upon an uncertainty of a letter being in the office. He telephoned the postmaster to know if the letter was there. It was, and then he asked him to open the letter and read it to him through the phone, which he did. An answer was dictated through the phone and the next mail carried an answer to the important letter. So much for the telephone.

Some men who had nice herds of hogs disposed of them at what they could get when it appeared there would be no corn. These men are now repenting that act, for they can see that the man who has the hogs and is brave enough to feed them well on high priced corn will get a remunerative price for his product. At present prices for fat hogs and corn, if a man can't feed so as to make money he is not "on to his job."

There are no friends like old friends and the farmer who has associated himself with the various lines of agriculture will have friends among the animals and crops he produces. Cows have proven good friends to many. Clover holds a close friendship to others and the list of friends may extend to hogs, sheep, wheat, corn, potatoes, broomcorn and other products which at some time benefit the farmer. White clover is an old friend and there are those who would have us make new friends in alfalfa, crimson clover, cow peas, goats, etc. Some of these new friends may be able to make a good record, and perhaps they do, but in the meantime there will be those who will not go back on the old friends.

I wonder if we are coming to cheaper fuel in the oil that seems to be so plentiful in the Southwest, a locality which has heretofore been noted for Texas cattle, cotton and large political majorities. Quite a number of engines are being fed with oil as fuel and it is found very economical. It would appear a little bit unusual to see farmers hauling four to six barrels of oil home instead of coal.

It never pays to buy poor clover seed. It will pay better to buy a dollar's worth of the very best clover seed than to buy a like value in a poorer grade even though a larger bulk is obtained. It pays to get good seed and plenty of it, and even then it costs but little more to seed an acre with seed than an acre with any other crop. Reliable houses keep some choice seed on hand but they do not find the sale for it at an advanced price that they do the inferior grades, and if it is placed where comparisons can be made the average farmer will be dissatisfied with the poorer grade and will not buy that. When the poorer grade is all that is in sight it does not look so poor as when it is compared with a sample of choice seed.

More corn is wanted on the other side than ever before but its use will be restricted on account of the price. The efforts to make corn a feed product on the other side have not succeeded.

The Atlantic Monthly.
The Atlantic Monthly, published by Houghton, Mifflin & Co., 4 Park St., Boston, Mass., for 1902, has issued its prospectus. It is one of the very best first-class magazines published.

A three-part story by George W. Cable, entitled Bylow Hill will be one of the features of early issues. A two-part story will be contributed by Eugenia B. Frothingham, the author of The Turn in the Road, and short stories will appear in every number. Political Papers—Important political papers will touch upon Disfranchisement and the Race Question, Education in the Philippines and Cuba, Colonial Legislatures, Army Reorganization, Normal Development of the Navy, The Organization of Labor, etc., etc.

Outdoor life will be treated in articles on golf, sailing, Going Into the Woods, etc., introduced by a study of "The Modern Chivalry," by John Corbin.

Recollections—Many interesting reminiscences will be published during the year, among others "The Memories of an Army Nurse," by Emily V. Mason of Virginia; "Recollections of Walt Whitman," by John T. Trowbridge; "England and the War of Secession," by Goldwin Smith; and an

Most of the corn that goes to Europe goes there for feeding and manufacturing.

Sometimes when hunger comes before quitting time and manly pride prevents one from going to the house to get a lunch, the mind of the man of fifty or more is carried back to the time of "salt rising bread" with its compliment of "storehouse molasses," and it does not require much stretch of imagination to see "mother" standing near the old fashioned corner cupboard with its plates standing on edge around the side, ready to supply that hungry lad of ten summers with a large slice of the best food on earth for growing boys. Applebutter may take the place of the "storehouse molasses" as a spread. Large, thick sausages and whole slices of fried ham appeal to one in such a manner as to make him wish he had his boyhood appetite again.

Name the farm and put up a bulletin board announcing the name of the farm as well as the name of being owner. Don't be afraid of being pompous or being called "stuck up" by some neighbor. Take the lead in this important move. Here are a few names of farms: The Elms, The Oaks, Hawthorne, Hilltop, Oaklawn, Oakridge, Orchard Grove, Wheatland, Kenwood, Kensington, Glenhope, The Willows, Willow Grove, Stanhope, Illmere, Ardmore, Elmhurst, Deer Park, Dellhurst, Applegrain and Haskerton. Something about the farm may suggest a name, or the name of some relative may be found excellent for whom to name a farm. Name it.

As the years go by we are learning new problems in feeding and we will still learn new things about it. Some of them will come slow and hard to the prejudiced. Prejudice is one thing that is very much against some kinds of advancement. Corn is and will be for a long time the general grain ration on farms. It is a great fattening ration being rich in oil and starch. It is a good feed for putting on fat and will produce the greatest weight in a short space of time. As a rule growing animals require more mineral matter than is contained in corn and in feeding young hogs it will be well to feed something that will supply this deficiency. It can be obtained in wood ashes and bone meal. It is considered very economical to feed these substances in connection with corn. Hogs will be more vigorous, they will have heavier bones and more blood. The muscles will be better developed and they will be in better condition. Potatoes will not be a good product to feed in connection with corn, since it is nearly all starch. Clover hay will be better. Bran, middlings, skim milk and vegetables will be very good for furnishing lime and protein. The hog will also need some bulky food; much more than the average hog gets.

Everything points to a condition of high priced potatoes next spring, if not before that time. The general rule is that when this condition does exist it results in an increased acreage the following season. The outcome often is that some will be sadly disappointed in the prices that will be received for the early crop. The grower who will produce early varieties will get better prices than the man who plants late potatoes. The man who intends planting an early variety should get the earliest that he can, and he should plant early on good ground and in every possible way hurry them to maturity and to market. This is a pointer and there are those who can take advantage of it.

Some writers would have us to believe that the running horse is the only animal that is entitled to the word "thoroughbred." How about the thorough head, the thoroughbred and the thoroughbred? It is safe to say that one is not thorough in every sense of the word without this combination.

Don't forget the best sugar cure for pork. It is: For every one hundred pounds of pork take two pounds of salt and three pounds of brown sugar. If one cares for the peculiar taste given it by adding salt-petre about three ounces should be added for this amount of meat. Leave it in a pickle five or six weeks and it is ready to hang and smoke. Hams, shoulders and side meat should be packed in separate barrels if there are enough hogs slaughtered at one time to allow this method.—Wisconsin Farmer.

Kills Child by Accident.
Fort Wayne, Ind., Nov. 25.—Louis Boissinet, a hotel porter, returned from hunting and was met at his gate by his 7-year-old daughter Lisette, an only child. He carried her into the house to show his wife a new gun. The trigger accidentally snapped and a load of shot struck Lisette in the breast. Death was instantaneous. A guard has been placed over the crazed father to prevent him from killing himself.

Pastor Held by Smallpox.
Sioux City, Iowa, Nov. 25.—Because his daughter was stricken with smallpox Rev. S. J. Winegar, who was to assume the pastorate of Bethany church in Chicago, will be detained at his residence here forty days. Pastor Winegar was to have left Sioux City tomorrow, but his daughter contracted the disease and the board of health at once ordered a rigid quarantine.

FREIGHT STATION NEARLY COMPLETE

The new St. Paul freight station is practically completed and will be ready for occupation in a short time. The building, while of the ordinary type of freight houses put up by the company, is quite an improvement over the old one that occupied the place where it now stands. The offices are in the south end of the building and are conveniently arranged for the purposes for which the building was erected.

It is almost in the center of the business district and will be a great convenience to shippers. One good feature about the new house is that shippers and teamsters will not have to cross the tracks to get their freight and will not be annoyed by the trains and switch engines which are continually passing at the old freight house.

PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENTS.

General Crozier succeeds Huntington as Chief of Ordnance.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 25.—The president has made the following appointments:

William Crozier, chief of ordnance, with rank of brigadier general; James Miller, colonel of infantry; Francis W. Mansfield, lieutenant colonel of infantry; James B. Jackson, major of infantry. Second Lieutenants of infantry—William E. Roberts, George W. England, Edwin J. Bracken, Franklin Lelsenring, John A. Hulen, Answell E. Detsch, Leonard T. Baker, Leonard H. Cook, Thomas S. Moorman, Jr., Eli L. Hughes, colonel of cavalry; Earl D. Thomas, lieutenant of cavalry; Chas. C. Winnie, Charles W. Maigne and Frank E. Lynch, second lieutenants of cavalry; Beecher B. Ray, paymaster, with rank of major; Waldemar A. Christensen, Herbert Gunn, Thomas A. Marshall and William C. Le Compte, assistant surgeons of volunteers, with rank of captain; James A. Thomas, second lieutenant artillery corps; Thomas E. Sulzer, provisionally first lieutenant Philippine scouts; William H. Sorsby, Mississippi, consul at Kingston, Jamaica; Charles V. Herdlika, District of Columbia, consul at San Juan del Norte, Nicaragua. Mr. Herdlika was recently appointed to the Kingston consulate, but arranged a transfer to the consulate at San Juan del Norte.

TWO NEGROES ARE LYNCHED.

South Carolina and Louisiana Mob Kill Death Penalty.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 25.—News was received of the lynching in Anderson county Sunday of an unknown negro. Saturday afternoon the man went to the home of Mrs. Perry Craft and asked for something to eat. When she turned to get him a plate of food he shot her through the back, inflicting a fatal wound. The negro fled and was all night and Sunday pursued by hundreds of men with bloodhounds. There are no details of the manner of his death.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 25.—Frank Thomas, a negro, was lynched on Amelia plantation, eight miles south of Shreveport, Sun. y afternoon by a mob of 200 negroes. Thomas was driving in a wagon with a 14-year-old negro boy named Wilburn, who owed Thomas 30 cents. The man demanded the coin and when the lad pleaded his inability to pay Thomas shot him through the head. The lynching followed.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children while teething. It soothes the child, cures the gums, allays all pain caused by wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Sold by druggists throughout the whole world.

Fire Destroys Felt Plant.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 25.—Fire completely destroyed the large felt plant of Julius De Long & Co. in Allegheny, entailing an estimated loss of $250,000. Peter Siler and J. Warner of Engine company No. 8 were caught by a falling wall and badly hurt, but both recovered. It took the entire department of Allegheny seven hours to get the flames under control.

Bank Chief Dies Suddenly.

New York, Nov. 25.—William A. Slocum, for nearly forty years president of the East River Savings Bank, died suddenly from pneumonia at his residence, 312 Carl avenue, Brooklyn. He was 82 years old and up to within two days of his death had attended to his business as usual.

Bleaching Plant Is Burned.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Nov. 25.—The bleaching plant of the Canadian Electro Chemical Company, manufacturing bleaching powders and caustic soda, was burned. It is owned by Philadelphia capitalists. The loss is $75,000.

Lost with 200 Passengers.

Manila, Nov. 25.—The local steamer Alerte, with 200 passengers, including some discharged American soldiers from Olongapo, Subic Bay, to Manila, is believed to have been lost.

Duke's Auto Is Smashed.

Rome, Nov. 25.—During a motor car race from Turin to Bologna between the duke of Abruzzi and Signor Cotelletti the machine of the former, while going at the rate of fifty miles an hour, came into collision with a milestone. The car was smashed, but the duke escaped with trailing injuries. He was compelled, of course, to abandon the race. Signor Cotelletti covered 224 miles in four hours and a half.

DAY OF JUDGMENT EXPECTED.

Ninety-Six Members of a New Sect Floating Down Mississippi.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 25.—A modern Noah's ark is anchored in the Mississippi river just underneath the Merchants' bridge. On board are ninety-six persons who believe that a second flood and the millennium will appear in 1941, and they propose to cruise the Mississippi until that dread day, when they say the Rockies shall be lowered to the level of the great basin and the Alps shall be no higher than the valleys of Europe. This strange craft and its stranger people arrived here in the night. The boat is a typical Mississippi river steamer, no mere house-boat. It was built at Lyons, Iowa, and launched there last week. The families keep house in small groups and there is no common dining hall. Most of the men are carpenters and many of the women are seamstresses. The study of astronomy and the manufacture of acetylene gas and burners are the principal occupations of the Association of Christian Brethren, as the members style themselves. L. T. Nichols of Minneapolis is the president and founder of the sect. He owns the boat, which is called "Mogiddo," an ancient Hebrew word meaning "Lord of Hosts." He and his followers expect to end their days thereon. Nicholas says: "We believe that at the end of 4,000 years of man's earthly existence, which will come in 1941, the earth will become a paradise, and man, with his earthly body restored, but with new powers and properties, will be able to soar to the most remote planets, until all of God's creation has been traversed. I shall remain on this boat or on such another as may be built to replace it as long as I live. If I die before the coming of the millennium, as is likely, my place will be filled, and the work of this boat, which may grow into a fleet, will be kept up. We are not Christian Scientists or Spiritualists. We have a physician on-board. We teach our children all that they would learn in the public schools."

SAYS MISS STONE IS WELL.

Another Letter Received by Mr. Dickinson—Time Limit on Ransom.

New York, Nov. 25.—A dispatch to the World from Sofia says: Another letter from Miss Stone, the American missionary, held by the brigands, has been received. Mr. Dickinson, the United States diplomatic representative, absolutely declines to disclose its contents, except to say that Miss Stone and her companion in imprisonment, Mme. Tsilka, are well.

Sofia, Nov. 25.—Mr. Dickinson, the United States consul, is considering the advisability of presenting an ultimatum to the brigands in which he will fix ten days as the period within which $50,000 must be accepted by the brigands as Miss Stone's ransom. If his proposal is not accepted all dealings with the bandits, so far as the United States is concerned, will cease.

Miners Will Disobey Court.

Nortonville, Ky., Nov. 25.—At a conference at Central City, the union officials and their attorneys decided to advise the men in camp here not to resist the troops, but to refuse to obey Judge Hall's order to break camp today. One of the men said: "We will lay down and let the soldiers carry us out of camp. We won't fight, but they will have to pick us up bodily and carry us out of camp." General Murray is now in conference with his staff officers at Madisonville mapping out a plan of campaign. Additional troops will be ordered to the scene. Among them will be a portion of a battery of artillery. Everything is quiet here. Two hundred men are in camp.

Fire Due to a Fish Globe.

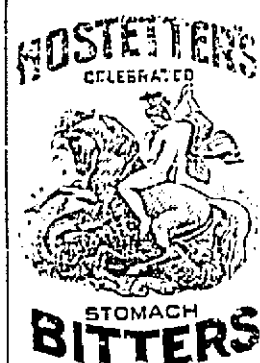

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 25.—A fire, the origin of which has baffled both firemen and police, has been found due to the sun's rays passing through an oval glass fish globe, which acted as a powerful burning glass and ignited the wood. A residence at Lyons was burned. Several holes were found burned through the side of the house without ashes or marks of incendiarism, while a fierce fire was raging within. As there was no fire in the house, the cause was a deep mystery until a hole was seen in the table where the goldfish globe stood.

Cashier Davis Pleads Not Guilty.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 25.—In the federal court Richard C. Davis, bank cashier of Washington, Ind., indicted on the charge of embezzling $7,000 from the funds of the People's National bank of that city, pleaded not guilty through his attorney, Smiley Chambers.

MUSIC MAY BE MURDERED

on a good piano—the piano is not to blame. But you can't get any music out of a bad piano. If you want a really good piano at the lowest possible cost, try piano we are selling on $10 payments. Its matchless musical quality, its purity of tone, its durability, all commend it.

For The Holiday Trade

we have just put forth extra efforts in the way of purchasing a stock of

in fact we have neglected nothing. We are proud now to claim the most complete stock of musical instruments in southern Wisconsin.

Gramophones, 3.00 to $40
Music Boxes, 1.00 to $75
Mandolins, 2.50 to $20
Guitars, 4.50 to $30

Don't Forget that on one payment of $10 we place in your home any piano in our complete stock—even the famous HARDMAN.
